New Business:

Name Change of Hwy C

All members and licensed businesses in City of Moscow were sent letters and emails stating the chamber would be voting make a recommendation to the city to change the name of Hwy C from the Cuivre River Bridge to Elm Tree to Moscow Mills Parkway. It was decided to table the vote until September's meeting. All businesses affected by the change are encouraged to be at September's meeting.

Those opposing the change felt it would be expensive for business to change their stationery and business forms. Those in favor felt it would identify Moscow Mills from the highway and increase the business traffic in the community. Many present felt we needed more information from MODOT and 911 Addressing before voting and presenting to city for change.

Discussions:

Business owners on the plazas where fair is being held were concerned about the clean up and the beer garden. There was lengthy discussion about the business fair and the mechanics of making it happen. All businesses are encouraged to participate. There will be entertainment, food and games for all ages.

A special thank you to Peggy & Roger Kreig for donating a gift basket for the attendance prize this month.

Next Meeting is September 17, 2007 – 6:30
